

we're walking here nyc

celebrate Walk to School Day with us!

GOOD FIELD TRIP OPPORTUNITY!

Livable Streets Education, NYCDOT, Walk21 and National Safe Routes to School present We're Walking Here NYC, a celebration for Walk to School Day, Wednesday October 7th.

We will be co-hosting a free city-wide event at Washington Square Park from 1-2pm for students to come together and celebrate their walking achievements.

Special guest Rahzel (a former member of The Roots) will be beat boxing live. Fun activities have been planned for all students, K-12, focusing on going green and healthy lifestyles. We will also have international leaders speaking on active communities and urban livability initiatives.

To sign up for this event visit:

www.WalkingSchools.org

For more information email:
info@walkingschools.org
or call 917-388-9038.

free city-wide event!

